Development intern

About JCS Consulting

JCS Consulting provides strategic consulting and implementation services to facilitate the planning, launch, and ongoing management of social intranets and customer communities powered by Jive Software. Headquartered in Del Mar, CA, JCS has an impressive customer list of over 120 customers globally over a diverse range of industries.

Duties and Responsibilities:

Computer Science Intern that is presently in their junior or senior year of pursuing a career in a computer science related discipline. Under close supervision, the Intern will perform assignments designed to develop professional software and web development skills and knowledge. Working with the CTO, the Intern will use standard techniques, procedures and criteria.

Position responsibilities include but are not limited to:

- Assist Engineers and business development associates in the design, testing, and implementation of Integrations and customizations of commercial software.
- Office work will include assisting project managers as necessary.
- Organized, detail-oriented person with good communication skills is needed for this position.

Minimum Requirements:

- High level programmer with in-depth knowledge of JavaScript, Node JS and Restful API's satisfactory completion of 3-4 years engineering/computer science courses. Knowledge of restful API's, software development and web development. Project work will involve work with JavaScript and HTML, Knowledge of AJAX, JSON, jQuery, CSS, Angular JS and Node JS would be a big plus. The Intern will be part of a team, with coaching and direction provided by his/her direct supervisor and the rest of the Engineering team. Good written communications and exceptional verbal skills. Detail oriented with excellent initiative and follow-up skills.

Hours and remuneration

- 10 - 15 hours per week, flexible schedule
- Pay - $25 per hour

Please submit your resume to info@jcsconsulting.com