Java Intern Position

Treobytes Inc. desires 2 interns to help middle school and high school students in an after school program, especially with an on-line course in Java (12 hours of coding using http://codeacademy.com/)

Each position is for 4 hours per week, Monday and Wednesday or Tuesday for 9 weeks. Interns are expected to work the full 9 weeks. Depending on their experience, interns may earn up to $15-20/hr. Interns selected will be responsible for the management of students to include facilitating Treobytes program, encourage students to work in teams, think creatively, and overall guidance to students to assist in successful completion of their projects. Interns selected must have an overall commitment to kids and to their success.
